A Message from the Chief

Greetings Tribe Members:

It is with great enthusiasm that I along with my fellow officers, welcome you all back to another exciting year at the University of Miami. The 2008-2009 academic year is going to be filled with amazing Homecoming activities, Hurricane sports, and of course the selection of new members into our great society. In addition, the University is in the midst of a large expansive/renovation project, so there is no better time to come back and see how our alma mater is growing on Biscayne's wondrous shore.

Just as the University is undergoing some enhancement projects, the Officers are diligently working to enhance several aspects of membership within the Tribe. Currently, we are working with the University to design an online dues and donation collection site. This site would help alleviate confusion and conveniently allow every Tribe Member to pay their dues when it is most convenient. In addition, throughout the year the officers will be building an electronic directory. This directory will allow us all to stay better connected and will serve as a great networking tool for every Tribe Member.

Another major event taking place this year is the Tribe's capital campaign for the Iron Arrow room in the new Student Activities Center. It is important that the Tribe maintain its presence in the new student center and support the growth of our University by fundraising for the Iron Arrow room. The Officers hope that by the year's end, 100% of our Membership will have contributed to and supported the capital campaign with a generous donation. We understand that times are hard, but please know that every donation (no matter how small) makes a difference and brings us closer to our goal. The officers would like to thank the many Tribe Members that have already contributed, and thank you all in advance for your future support.

We look forward to sharing another amazing Homecoming celebration with each and every one of you. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at dpoterek@gmail.com or on my cell at (586) 943-4665.

Yours in the Arrow,

Daniel Poterek

Tribal Connection: Building Tradition into the New Student Activities Center

The Tribe has committed itself to helping raise funds for the construction of the new Student Activities Center. In return for our hard work and generosity, Iron Arrow will be provided with its own room in the new facility. This commitment ensures that as UM changes, the Tribe will be there to serve as a resource for the University and as the safeguard of tradition.

Any and all donations will be greatly appreciated. Let us be that group of committed 'Canes that band together to ensure the success of the University's latest project.

Along with each level of giving, contributing members will be recognized at the semester tapping luncheon with a designated lapel pin, along with a certificate of appreciation. Please remember, contributions to the Iron Arrow Gift Account count towards your level of giving for the University of Miami. For more information, please contact the Iron Arrow Office.

Luncheon Speaker - Coach Jim Morris

It doesn't matter if his roster is full of rookies or veterans, University of Miami Head Coach Jim Morris continues to produce some of college baseball's most consistent and dominant teams heading into his 15th season in Coral Gables. With a talented staff around him, Morris' Hurricanes are continually the class of collegiate baseball, winning national titles in 1999 and 2001.

In his 14-season tenure at Miami, no other program, nor head coach, has qualified for the College World Series as much as Morris and his Hurricanes. Miami, which has qualified for the NCAA Tournament a NCAA-record 35 consecutive years, has made it to Omaha in 10 of Morris' 14 seasons in Coral Gables. Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris has won a record 13 consecutive NCAA Regionals, dating back to his first year at Miami in 1994. His teams have qualified for NCAA Regionals for the last 22 years, 13 at Miami and nine at Georgia Tech.

Coach Morris is a great asset to the University and his leadership with our baseball team has been an inspiration to all. We are honored to have him speak before the Tribe as we celebrate the University and our Fall 2008 Tapping class.

Financial Responsibility

Please remember, it is the responsibility of each Member to help maintain the Tribe's financial security. Your annual dues help to fund the newsletter, Initiation, and all other Tribal activities. Please help keep the Tribe strong by paying your annual dues.

Suggestions?

Do you have a great idea for a Tribal event? A fundraising activity? A general request? A suggestion for the Officers? Please let us know and we will do our best to implement your idea.

Memorable Moments From the Spring 2008 Semester

2008 Lauren R. Gould Native American Lecture

Presented by the Tribal Arts Society.
"Katsina: Commodification and Appropriation of Hopi Supernaturals"
Dr. Zena Pearlstone

Carvings representing Katsina supernatural beings have been made for more than 100 years. Dr. Pearlstone will discuss images of many traditional Katsina and their function in Hopi culture as well as examples of the appropriation and commodification of these images by Hopi and non-Hopi. She has conducted and published many interviews with Hopi and non-Hopi artists reflecting a wide range of attitude toward the use and imitation of these images.

Dr. Pearlstone is a Research Associate, University of California. She is Professor Emerita, Art History, California State University, Fullerton; and written extensively about Native American art for more than 30 years.
