A Message from the Chief

Greetings Tribe Members:

It is with much excitement that I, along with this year's officers, welcome you to what we are confident will be an amazing year for Iron Arrow and our University. The officers and I have been busy planning a year filled with new and interesting events for the Tribe and we are definitely ready to get started!

This year we hope to truly embrace the history, spirit, and traditions that are the foundation of our organization. Acknowledging many of your suggestions and requests, we hope to establish new programs and initiatives throughout this academic year that will demonstrate our commitment to the history, spirit, and traditions of our Tribe and University. This year, we hope to strengthen friendships and connections amongst Tribe members through social programming; we plan to give back to our University and community through participation in and planning of service activities; and, we hope to offer and provide more opportunities for involvement in the Tribe, the University, and the community. With your help and participation in these initiatives, we know that we can achieve these goals and have a successful year for the Tribe!

As we look forward to a year of improvements and advancement, we also recognize and appreciate the importance of your support in contributing to our growth and progress. The officers would therefore like to thank the many Tribe Members that have already contributed to Iron Arrow this year, and thank you all in advance for your future support of the Tribe.

As we start the year, we are also excited to hear more from you and take your ideas into consideration! I would like you to invite you to contact me with any suggestions or advice you would like to share with the officers. Please feel free to contact me anytime at 305-495-6620 or ESDoyle052@yahoo.com.

We look forward to seeing you all at this year's Homecoming festivities and to celebrating the history, spirit, and traditions of our "UM"azing Alma Mater with you this year!

Yours in the Arrow,

Elena S. Doyle

Chief, Iron Arrow

Tribal Connection: Building Tradition into the New Student Activities Center

The Tribe has committed itself to helping raise funds for the construction of the new Student Activities Center. In return for our hard work and generosity, Iron Arrow will be provided with its own room in the new facility. This commitment ensures that as UM changes, the Tribe will be there to serve as a resource for the University and as the safeguard of tradition.

Any and all donations will be greatly appreciated. Let us be that group of committed 'Canes that band together to ensure the success of the University's latest project.

Along with each level of giving, contributing members will be recognized at the semester tapping luncheon with a designated lapel pin, along with a certificate of appreciation. Please remember, contributions to the Iron Arrow Gift Account count towards your level of giving for the University of Miami. For more information, please contact ironarrow@miami.edu

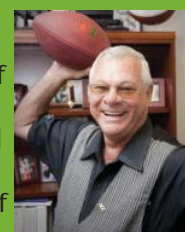

Below are the different giving categories:

Bronze Arrow	$50.00 - $99.99
Silver Arrow	$100.00 - $249.99

Luncheon Speaker - Dr. Clyde McCoy

Clyde B. McCoy, Ph.D. has served the University of Miami in various capacities for more than three decades. He holds the position of Professor, Chairman Emeritus of Epidemiology & Public Health at UM, as well as Director of the Comprehensive Drug Research Center. He is a founding member of both the FL Institute of Public Health and Miami Dade Public Health Institute and has directed the drug-abuse research facility at UM ever since it opened in 1974. Dr. McCoy has been involved in UM athletics for almost as long; as Faculty Athletic Representative for UM athletics, Dr. McCoy has been responsible for ensuring academic integrity, facilitating institutional control of intercollegiate athletics and enhancing the student-athlete experience. During his tenure at the University he has established a successful career and international reputation in research, teaching and administration. Dr. McCoy's research interests include a broad span of epidemiology, substance abuse, cancer, early detection of breast cancer, HIV-AIDS, community studies, health planning, and health services. He has been published in several journals on these topics and recognized both for his scholarship and leadership. Dr. McCoy has over 300 publications with over 200 scientists including articles in leading journals. Most recently, Dr. McCoy was elected to serve as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC). As President, his goals include making sure that student athletes receive top-notch educations, as well as recognizing where the organization is, relative to a business model. We are truly honored to have Dr. McCoy speak before the Tribe as we celebrate the University and our Fall 2009 Tapping class.
